Bill Would Authorize Financing Of New Employment Office Here

Torrance is among the 19 California cities which would get new buildings for state Department of Employment offices under a bill now pending before the Assembly Committee on Finance and Insurance.

Passage of AB 1062, which would authorize the building program was heartily endorsed last Friday by William A. Burkett, director of the employment department, in a speech delivered at dedication ceremonies of new headquarters in Inglewood. Cost of the proposed new building in Torrance would be $164,200.

The program would be financed by borrowing from the Disability Fund reserve which is now at about $131,000,000. The loan could be paid in yearly payments until the debt is cleared and buildings become state property.

Proponents of the plan argue that the measure is badly needed in order to end crowded conditions at Department of Employment offices, with resulting loss of efficiency. They say it would do so without more taxes or bonds.

A total of $6,500,000 would be taken out of the Disability Fund reserve, with this amount being returned to the fund by federal government, which finances operation of the Department of Employment.

The federal government pays the state rent for the present buildings. If the $6,500,000 is invested in new buildings, the state will continue to receive federal rentals to repay the loan from the state fund.

Interest on the loan would be 3 per cent, since the reserve fund money is now being invested in state and federal bonds at 2 1/2 per cent, it would be an increased yield of one-half per cent, or $33,000 each year to the Disability Fund.

Court Ruling Cramps Policemen Against Dope, Bookie Violators

Local police officers will be working under a handicap in investigation of narcotics or bookmaking activities as a result of a recent court ruling barring evidence obtained "in violation of the constitutional guarantees," it is believed by Torrance Police Chief Willard Haslam.

The chief said he thinks that police work in these fields will be greatly restricted until clarification is effected by members of the Legislature and the state Supreme Court following the April 27 decision in the case of People vs. Charles H. Cahan.

County Handles
However, Haslam pointed out, Torrance police are not extensively involved in cases involving narcotics or bookmaking. He explained that, since the local police are well known as individuals, they aren't able to apprehend violators easily. Such cases, therefore, are ordinarily referred to the narcotics squad of the sheriff's department.

"There are possibly only one or two narcotics arrests in a year's time," said Haslam. "Clas Fourth Amendment 'The fourth amendment,' he continued, "protects citizens against 'unreasonable searches and seizures.' The question to be clarified is: What constitutes 'unreasonable'?"

"For instance, we may be sure some guy is carrying narcotics, but until we have evidence we can't make an arrest. We have to have enough evidence to complete an arrest before we search a car."

"The Legislature and state Supreme Court are trying to get together to work out a clarification."

Times Have Changed
"The California Penal Code," Haslam said, was written in 1872. Since then, he declared, police procedures have changed. "We're dealing with a different kind of criminal than 75 years ago, and need different methods of bringing them to justice."

District Attorney S. Ernest Roll of Los Angeles County has asked the state Supreme Court for a rehearing in the case in order to obtain a clarification for benefit of law enforcement officers.

He has also asked for emergency legislation at this session to clarify the law of arrest.

TRAVEL SMILES

By Merry Miles

I'd like to tell you about a new kind of Greyhound escorted vacation to Mexico that's really operated in the spirit of the Land of Manana. You board the Mexico-bound bus at Phoenix, travel leisurely in your own "private" coach (with a congenial group of fellow adventurers) with pauses along the way for lunch, rest, or wherever there's something especially interesting to see. No hurried schedule you understand; just an easy day-to-day-itinerary that gives you time to see everything and enjoy a good rest every night in a first-class hotel, with leisure at the end of each day to stroll or ride around and enjoy life with the Mexicans.

Another feature that makes for relaxed travel in Old Mexico is your escort, a helpful person who speaks Spanish as well as English and takes care of all the worrisome details that can detract from enjoyment of foreign travel... like handling baggage, getting the best hotel service, tipping and that sort of thing. All you have to do is relax and enjoy everything to the utmost.

Local Girl's Leg Broken In Accident

A Torrance girl suffered a broken leg Sunday when involved in an auto collision about 350 yards east of Winlock Road, on Pacific Coast Hwy. The driver of the other car was booked for drunk driving.

The injured girl was Jackie Stephens, of 23664 Park St. She was taken to Harbor General Hospital by Wright's Ambulance.

Robert Lee Kling, 511 Meyer Lane, Redondo Beach, a mechanic for the Redondo Beach Municipal government, driver of the car which skidded into the car the Stephens girl was riding, was accused of the drunk driving offense.

There was damage to the right side of each car, the Kling vehicle having reversed its direction before striking the other machine at an intersection.

Kling was released Monday on bail.

Satterfield in Hawaii

Participating in a special joint airground operation in Hawaii with the 4th Marine Regiment's B Company, 3rd Shore Party Battalion is Pvt. Bill R. Satterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert D. Satterfield of 21009 Victor St., Torrance.

LOW IN COST

Compared to the cost of using other forms of transportation, this Greyhound vacation in Mexico is a real bargain, only $180, double-room rate, per person, plus U.S. tax, from Phoenix. And the dollar is worth much more pesos, which means extra cash for extra fun in Mexico. See your local Greyhound agent for complete information.

Adios for now. This is Merry Miles saying, "I'll be seeing you and you'll be seeing America—best—by Greyhound!"
